

Watching the West Coast Fever at RAC Arena

I am going to watch the West Coast Fever play a netball game.

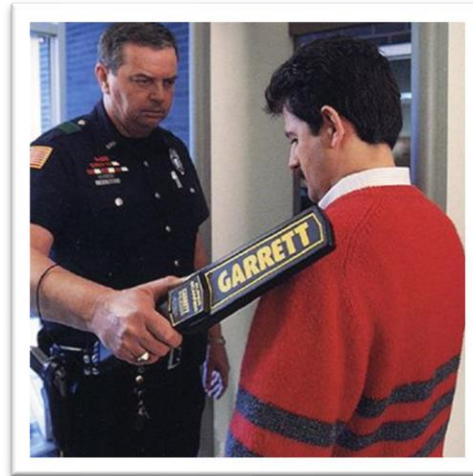

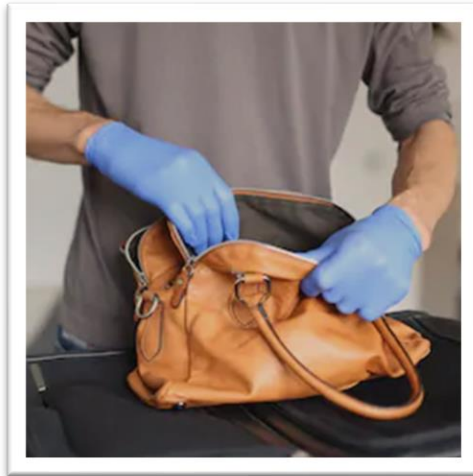

It is going to be at RAC Arena.

Lots of people wear special clothes to a West Coast Fever game like beanies, scarves, or hats. I don't have to wear this if I don't want to.

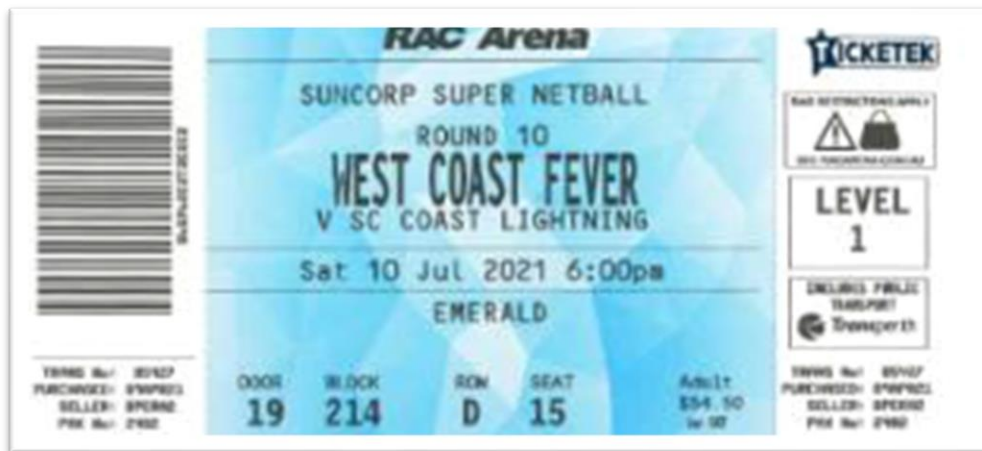

When I arrive, I might have to wait in a line to show the staff my ticket.

Security will check my bag and might scan me with their wand. They do this to keep everyone safe and happy at the game.

I can buy food when I am at the game, or I can bring something from home.

Everyone has a place to sit – I can find my seat number on my ticket.

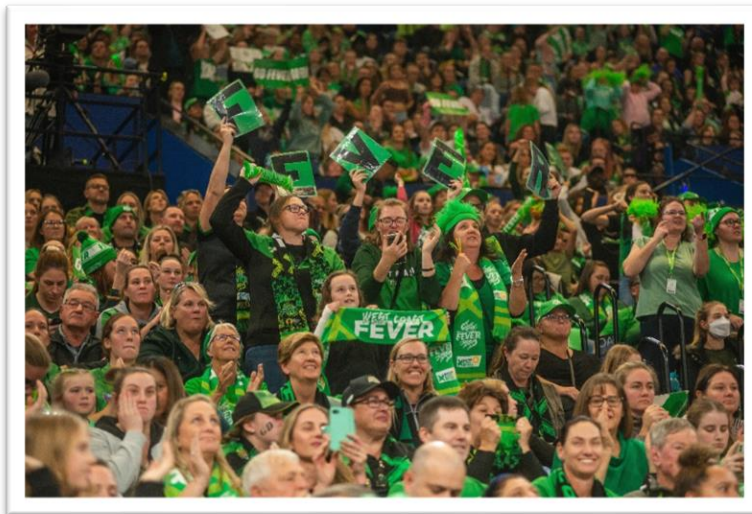

Lots of people like going to watch the West Coast Fever play so it might be busy and loud. People like to jump up and down, cheer, and yell when their favourite team scores. This means they are happy and excited!

I might see Fifi!

When West Coast Fever score there is a lot of cheering.

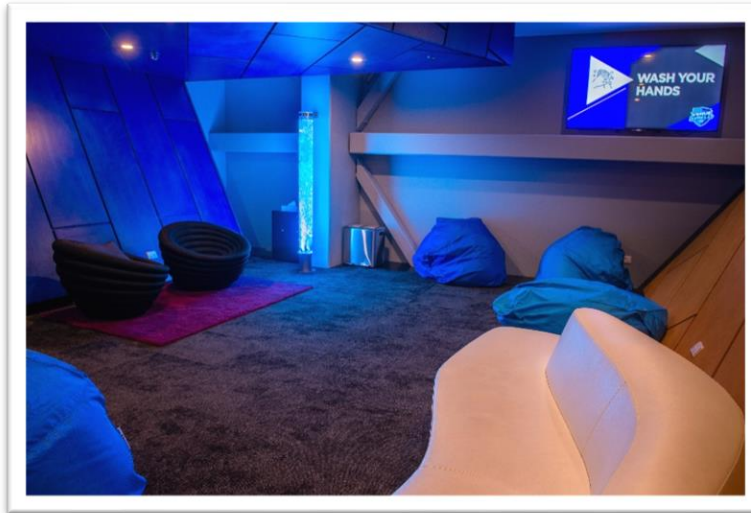

Some people jump up out of their seats.

If there is too much noise or I get overwhelmed, I can ask for a break, play with a fidget toy, or put on headphones.

I can also visit the quiet room. The quiet room has beanbags, calming things to look at, and dimmed lights. I can still see the game on the TV in the room so I don't miss out!

At the end of the game, the team with the highest score wins. I hope it is the West Coast Fever but it is ok if the other team wins.

Going to the West Coast Fever at RAC Arena is fun!
